Vaughan Public Libraries Recognized as a Best Place to Work

VAUGHAN, ONTARIO – Vaughan Public Libraries is pleased to announce that we have been recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Canadian HR Reporter's 2023 survey of workplaces.

This in-depth program collects data across a wide range of key factors such as employee engagement, turnover rates, average tenure of staff, compensation and benefits, health and wellness programs, diversity initiatives, professional development, corporate culture, flexible work options, reward and recognition, and green programs. Staff are then surveyed to rate their organization across the major metrics that drive employee satisfaction, and only those who meet the highest level are identified as one of Canada's Best Places to Work.

Vaughan Public Libraries has long cherished the expertise, creativity, and dedication of our staff. We believe in creating warm and welcoming workplaces that allow people to flourish, while also receiving the satisfaction that their work makes a difference in our community. We remain committed to recognizing our staff through robust programs, training, and a comprehensive total compensation package.

"It is our honour to be recognized as one of the Best Places to Work in Canada!" said Vaughan Public Libraries CEO, Margie Singleton. "We strive to be a world-class library system, and our staff are a foundational building block of that. We aim to hire the best, providing them with the tools and environment they need to thrive, so we are happy that our staff have provided this stamp of approval."
